WINTER 2009

Brrr...January – the perfect time of year for fresh starts, getting back on track and committing to resolutions. Let the Estevan Arts Council help you explore & develop your creativity. Join us for an art class or workshop – investing in your creativity has its own rewards!

Avoid disappointment and register EARLY!

We have, in past, turned people away – either because the class was full or because it was cancelled due to low registration. It is true, we sometimes cancel excellent courses, taught by great instructors, but only because too many people wait until the last minute to register.

To cover the cost of running our classes, we require a minimum number of students before a course can run. In fairness to all, classes with less than the minimum are cancelled a week prior to the first class.

How can you help? If planning to take a particular class, please register sooner rather than later and avoid being disappointed.

- Payment required at time of registration
- Separate cheque is required for each class because of possible cancellation
- All cheques are payable to: Estevan Arts Council
- Low registration is just cause for the cancellation of a program – fee will be refunded
- ALL classes in craft room of the Leisure Centre unless otherwise stated.
